

Claws

The Haunt

If I was smart I woulda
Put up more of a fight
Hurt me like no one coulda
Why'd you come here tonight?

Open up these scars
Offer up my heart
To a monster waiting in the dark
Get away
I know I should've
God knows that I've tried
God knows how hard I've tried

We made this bed now we lie in it
Don't think I'm buying your bullshit
You're sick inside and I'm sorry
Why'd I let you sink your claws in me?

I'm bluffing when I leave 'cause
I got nowhere to go
I feel so incomplete without your hand on my throat
Your hands around my throat

We made this bed now we lie in it
Don't think I'm buying your bullshit
You're sick inside and I'm sorry
Why'd I let you sink your claws in me?

I'm drowning in anxiety but every time he's next to me
And all this fucking therapy will never be enough

We made this bed now we lie in it
Don't think I'm buying your bullshit
You're sick inside and I'm sorry
Why'd I let you sink your claws in me?

Why?
Why?
Why'd I let you sink your claws in me?

Why?
Why?
Sink your claws in me

Sink your claws in me
