

You raised me from 18 on
You hate me cuz I'm crazy, dear god
I said baby, don't call me up
Cuz your voice will break my luck
I said baby, don't call me out
Bet you'd love to wear my doubt
I've seen this before and hated how it ends
When you both fight for love
You're falling past pretend

Don't call my phone when it's too late at night
Cuz I fall for it about a thousand times
Can't fuckin' believe I let you in my life
I'm so fuckin' stupid cuz I did it twice

Baby, I'm breaking down
I've been trapped inside this crowd
I said baby, I'm not around
I've been lost, but don't wanna be found
I've seen this before, and hated how it ends
When you both fight for love
You're falling past pretend

Don't call my phone when it's too late at night
Cuz I fall for it about a thousand times
Can't fuckin' believe I let you in my life
I'm so fuckin' stupid cuz I did it twice
Fuck my life
Did it twice
Fuck my, fuck my
Fuck my life

Shut me up, shut me out
You loved me in vain
And I loved you without
You're cold and sick and disconnected
If our love was real, then why'd you wreck it?

Shut me up, shut me out
You loved me in vain
And I loved you without
You're cold and sick and disconnected
If our love was real, then why'd you wreck it?

Don't call my phone when it's too late at night
Cuz I fall for it about a thousand times
Can't fuckin' believe I let you in my life
I'm so fuckin' stupid cuz I did it twice
Fuck my life
Did it twice
Fuck my, fuck my
Fuck my life
