

Make Me King

The Haunt

I don't want to break your heart but I don't want to stay
I don't want to wreck your day with the awful things I'll say

(I know)

I know you love the sound of my teeth on your mouth
But don't fuck around
Hand me your fucking crown

(I know)

Miscommunication, based in
Everything's yours for the taking
Waste of breath
Standing in-between life and death
All that's yours is mine for the taking
(Make me king)

I just love to make you sick, first, a kick into your spine
I don't want you but you are mine, 'til the sun decides to rise

(I know)

I said it before, but you're nothing more
Than a guy who loves a girl who loves to rule the world

(I know)

Miscommunication, based in
Everything's yours for the taking
Waste of breath
Standing in-between life and death
All that's yours is mine for the taking
Make me king!
Make me king!

Had to cut you off, Had to take a walk
Learn to love someone who doesn't love themself (at all)
Had to break it first, and that fucking hurt
My heart's been yours for the taking
Funny how long I've been faking
Make me king!
Make me king!
