The Haunt

My mother said that I'm not the only one that feels alone, change perspectives

I can't believe who I use to be, scared of mine own brain

I know she told me don't worry about what they say

(I know she told me don't worry about what they say)

My mother said that I'm not the only one that feels alone

They said time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

I know she said that I'm, not the only one who feels so numb, pain will change you

I can't believe what it did to me, fear and insecurity

I know she told me don't worry about what they say

Do you, babe

And I went down as they went up and I know you're driving me mad
And I said bye as you came in, I assumed you're not into it

They said time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

My hands start to shake, I remember I've only got today

My breath starts to fade, I remember how bad was yesterday

And my heart starts to race, I remember it's time to walk away

And you're not who you say

Seems I'm a game you wanna play, these days

They said time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent

Time will heal, you'll get over it

They promised me it's not permanent
