Bloodletting

The Haunted

The streets of broken dreams await the darkness. To bring new souls along for the ride. Another statistic on the sidewalk. Found his peace at last. In your stare, lost innocence. Seen all the misery of this world. Lonely ghosts escaping a dismal past

Another statistic on the sidewalk Found this peace at last.

It's my final bloodletting
In your stare, lost innocence. Seen all the misery of this world. The hangman's laughter echoes in the alleys of the dead.

Put an end to the manic frustration. Find my peace at last. Put an end to this manic frustration. Find my peace at last.

Shed the blood that runs through my veins. Bloodletting. When you bleed seek salvation in me. When you bleed seek salvation in me.
