Facing the options, my life's stinking trail. As all these illu sions turn pale and insane. Victim to none, my own hunger devoured. Full s ystem shutdown, my drug is divine. My life is becoming a death, trapp ed inside...I'll be damned. Christ was a downright cunt in his own time, Fuck that! I will be damned... So how do you figure you're better than me? You cower at all (you're) too scared to be free. My vision is clear as I watch your decline. If I was a god you would all fucking fry! My life is becoming a death, trapped inside...I'll be damned. Christ was a downright cunt in his own time, Fuck that! I will be damned... Screaming fo r mercy, suburbia burns. Hells opens wide, as the fires light. Rising a new generation of hate.. Destruction of all life. (spoken) Start praying preacher man... Feeding the flames of society's end. It's each man n for himself. A loaded gun, a heart of stone. The will. I shall survive! I'm $\,$ finding a new way, my hatred will burn. Revel in flesh as the s cales slowly turn. My vision is clear as I watch your decline. If I \mbox{w} as a god you would all fucking die! My life is becoming a death, trapped inside...I'll be damned. Christ was a downright cunt in his own time.

(Hammer it!!!)
