

The Fall

The Haunted

Staring down into the abyss
Plunging deeper and deeper
I will make your nightmares
Come true
I am the reaper

I've come to leave my mark
I'll make you feel what's real
I've come to leave my mark
It's time to rise or fall

Picking up the pieces
Of a shattered existence
Like a wolf
Among you mortals
You never senses a thing
I've come to leave my mark
I'll make you feel what's real
I've come to leave my mark
It's time to rise or fall
One by one
You watch them fall

No way out
Lay it all to waste

I've come to leave my mark
I'll make you feel what's real
I've come to leave my mark
It's time to rise or fall
In the end, all we built
Will come falling down
Falling down
Like a house of cards

One by one
Will come falling down
One by one
Will come falling down
