

Fire

The Heavy

I tried so hard to find it
And keep it to myself
But it's impossible to hold it down
It weighs upon my head

The mercury rises
It's hot enough to read
I call your name, touch the flame
It brings me no relief

I said it feels like fire
Fire
Burn a hole into my soul
Fire

A shadow of my former self
My friends don't recognize
I'm losin' weight, not thinkin' straight
I'm dead behind the eyes

I'm smoking all the wrong things
The lava starts to burn
Saturday sealed my fate
I guess I will never learn

I said it feels like fire
Fire
Burn a hole into my soul
Fire

F-I-R-E
You'll never know what you're doin' to me

Fire
Fire
Burn a hole into my soul
Fire (I heard somebody scream)
Fire (I heard somebody scream)
Fire
Burn a hole into my soul
Fire (I heard somebody scream)
F
(I heard somebody scream)
I
(I heard somebody scream)
R
(I heard somebody scream)
