

Break Away

The Hell

Into the valley of desire
All Christians are falling apart
No one stands in denial
The pleasure is fuel for mankind
Do you want passion and glory?
Do you survive scarred for life?
That's what they trying to sell you
Don't sell yourself

What is faith?
Something to make you blind
What's regret?
Something to fool your mind

Hey! Let's break away
Turn love to hate
You don't have no chains
Hey! Let's go insane
Do it anyway
You don't need no faith

If you're betrayed, show no mercy
Don't hesitate to avenge
If you're let down by somebody
Give them nothing to expect
No one stands out in front of me
I call the shots of my life
Your misconception of freedom
Is bound to become just a lie

What is faith?
Something to make you blind
What's regret?
Something to fool your mind

Hey! Let's break away
Turn love to hate
You don't have no chains
Hey! Let's go insane
Do it anyway
You don't need no faith

Ask for your desires
Who's to fulfill? that's only you
When it's time to die
Who would you save? You!
