

Killer

The Hell

Destroyer demon
Dominates the city
A patient murderer
Ghost of blood
Who is always in your dreams

Walking in the darkest streets
Places without life
The hell game
You're going to be free

Wake up and run
Hide and don't think
Look what you have done

His red eyes in the dark
Waiting for his next victim
You cannot escape
Your existence will disappear

Wake up and run
Hide and don't think
Look what you have done

Destroyer demon
Dominates the city
A patient murderer
Ghost of blood
Who is always in your dreams

Wake up and run
Hide and don't think
Look what you have done
