

1995

The Hellcopters

Here we go gone again
Got no cash - running low on friends
Here we are in the eec
Scrapyard human waste disposal industry
1993 life was such a drag
Just live to work - put on your name tag
But now your name ain't of letters
It's of one's and zero's
Welcome to the age of digital heroes

1995 - trying to get by
What are going to do
The 20's is looking at you

You think you're happy
But you're just confused
Don't kid yourself - you're just being used
Like an old car and you think they're your fellows
The stars is just a swastika in blue and yellow

Here we go gone again
Got no dough - running low on friends
Here we are in the eec
Scrapyard human waste disposal industry
1993 life was such a drag
Just live to work - put on your name tag
But now your name ain't of letters
It's of one's and zero's
Welcome to the age of digital heroes

1995 - trying to get by
What are going to do
The 20's is looking at you
Oh yeah, 1995? trying to get high
What you gonna do?! 1992
