

Token Apologies

The Hellacopters

I know the silent treatment
I'm good with being a little ignored
I'm ok with a cold shoulder or two
I know I can be shown the door

But if you say it, say it like you mean it
No need to fall to your knees
A straight up sorry will do it
But I don't need
Don't need your token apologies

And I don't need the reasons
No I don't need the excuse
Got no time for explanations
There's nothing there to pursue

So if you say it, say it like you mean it
No need to fall to your knees
A straight up sorry will do it
But I don't need
Don't need your token apologies

Here's to human error
It's just what we do
To misinterpretations
And to see them through

Here's to human error
It's just what we do
To misinterpretations
And to see them through

I know the silent treatment
I'm good with being a little ignored
I'm ok with a cold shoulder or two
I know I can be shown the door

But if you say it, say it like you mean it
No need to fall to your knees
A straight up sorry will do it
But I don't need
Don't need your token apologies

Don't need your token apologies
Don't need your token apologies
