

Try Me Tonight

The Hellacopters

Now call me a coward, call me candy ass
I'll never stand up, no, I'd rather pass
And I'll never take one for you or for my team
And I've got no values, no, I've got no self-esteem

But when the sun is sinking low, you know
You might be in for a surprise
I might even surprise myself, why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?

Not much for making an effort or going out on a limb
I might fulfill one or two duties but the chances are slim

But when the sun is sinking low, you know
You might be in for a surprise
I might even surprise myself, why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Yeah, why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?

When you least expect it, I'll stop you in your tracks
And although it don't seem very likely, in fact I always had yo ur back

But when the sun is sinking low, you know
You might be in for a surprise
I might even surprise myself, you know, why don't you try me to night?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?
Oh, why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Yeah, why don't you try me tonight?
(Try me tonight) Why don't you try me tonight?

Try, try me tonight
Try, try me tonight (Try me tonight)
Try, try me tonight (Try, oh, won't you try me tonight?)
Try, try me tonight (Try me tonight)
Try, try me tonight (Try, oh, won't you try me tonight?)
Try, try me tonight (Why don't you try me tonight?)
Try, try me tonight (Why don't you try me, why don't you try me tonight?)
Try, try me tonight (Why don't you try me tonight?)
