

Lying

The Hoosiers

I know you're lying
I know you're lying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

I know you're trying
I know you're trying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

The truth don't change
But we both did
It's too late for us
It's a little too late for us
Make it work
For the sake of the kids
Go boom or bust
Oh, it's a little too late for us

I want to trust
But it's too dangerous
Oh, if I could only just
Believe a lie, -lieve a lie
Believe in you

I know you're lying
I know you're lying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

I know you're trying
I know you're trying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

Look in my eyes
Tell me I'm your guy
The one you're dreaming of Yeah, I'm the one you're dreaming of Well, I'm not seventeen
And you're no queen
Can't fool yourself into love
Oh, can't fool yourself into love

I want to trust
But it's too dangerous
Oh, if I could only just
Believe a lie, -lieve a lie
Believe in you

I know you're lying
I know you're lying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

I know you're trying
I know you're trying
When you say
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

I know you're lying
I know you're lying
Woah
I love you so
I know you don't
You want to

I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
I know you're lying
