

Make or Break

The Hoosiers

I'm sick and tired of being told I'm an impatient boy
I took the bait and made a big run for your heart
You left me broke and on the floor like a discarded toy
I should have known it from the start

My destination is the place where only fools rush in Too quick to trace the paces of my racing heart
Gone home to steal a star and role in your biography
And trap the grace pages from the start

(You gotta know) With every leading step, I follow
Wherever you may go
(I will love you) When I will beg, I see it, I borrow
Just to let you know

Your soul see I can't delete such hope in me
Your sunshine face, your branches wrapped around my soul
Left to neglect, it grew so sweetly while it's chocking me
How could I ever let it go?

(You gotta know) With every leading step, I follow
Wherever you may go
(I will love you) When I will beg, I see it, I borrow
Just to let you know

I rolled the dice, it was a chance I was prepared to take
I never want to think that ignorance was bliss
I took the plunge and then acknowledged that it was make-up break
And either way I know it wasn't rich

(You gotta know) With every leading step, I follow
Wherever you may go
(I will love you) When I will beg, I see it, I borrow
Just to let you know
(You gotta know) These words will make me break my sorrow
Stay or let me go
(I will love you) And even if we get tomorrow,
Even that is not enough

You gotta slow down boy
Get that chance tomorrow
You gotta slow down boy
Get that chance tomorrow
You gotta slow down boy
Get that chance tomorrow
You gotta slow down boy
Get that chance tomorrow
