Hang Your Cross

The Hope Conspiracy

You fear god
more than your fear yourself
you fear hell
more than you fear what's true

Guilt forgets no one

Fear is why you blame Blame is why you kill lurking deep inside us
fear is at our roots

Justify what you live for Justify what you'll die for Justify
Justify
You can never escape
War, blood, money
Your god

All the praising that you learned
All the stories that you heard
All the dirt that you were fed
Failed, forever in the end

It's war
It's blood
It's money
Hanging from the cross
