

Vacancy

The Hotelier

You're so old now. Your bearings are shot.
You're a caved in roof. You're falling apart.
Your nights are spent lying on the couch
Hoping to forget...

You can't fix this
Cause it's burning down.
Yeah, you can't fix me
Cause I'm so burnt out.

When that sun crept over those stairs
We were lighting fires on our hands.
We held the fate of everything we loved
In our hands.

You can't fix this
Cause it's burning down.
Yeah, you can't fix me
Cause I'm so burnt out.

The strain in my back has left me here.
I keep choking on my fears,
On my loose ends.
All the strength leaves the ghosts alone.

Oh, we are the same.

Oh, we are the same.

You can't fix this (Oh, we are the same)
Cause it's burning down.
Yeah, you can't fix me (Oh, we are the same)
Cause I'm so burnt out.
