

Fade Away

The House of Love

Drop a little weight of illusion
Take away the time, blow your mind
Only way to look is the top
And maybe you're the crime I just can't find

Don't fade away
You're here to stay
Don't fade away

Succor someone out of their sleep
Baby you're the cream when the moment comes
Cover me and climb on my arms
You're the spirit of another day

So don't fade away
You're here to stay
Don't fade away
You're mine, babe
Don't fade away
You're here to stay
Don't fade away

Don't fade away
You're here to stay
Don't fade away
You're mine, babe
Don't fade away
You're here to stay
Don't fade away
You're mine
