There is a mountain said to be impassable
Do not bother to think how to pass it
Seek and find that mountain
It will be passed once we set our mind to it

Hey oh seek and find that unclimbed mountain
It will be passed once we set our mind to it
Hey oh find and reach that unclimbed mountain
It will be passed once we set our mind to it

There is a river said to be uncrossable
Do not bother to think how to cross it
Seek and find that uncrossable river
It will be crossed once we set our mind to it

Hey oh seek and find that bottomless river
It will be passed once we set our mind to it
Hey oh seek and find that bottomless river
It will be passed once we set our mind to it

If you wish to reach the high mountain pass
Let's not let the far distance discourage us
We march and reach
If you wish to reach the end of vast ocean
Let's not let the difficulty discourage us
We endure and reach

The toughness of body conquers one
The toughness of mind conquers many
The toughness of body conquers one
The toughness of mind conquers many
