

High Time

The Icicle Works

Is there someone holding on to you?
Is there something I should know?
When I ask you what you're gonna do
You just smile like come and go

What's the use in waiting, girl?
I wanna give you love today

It's high time
High time

If I call you, will you come to me?
If you need me, I'll be there
I'm so tired of your apologies
Can't you see how much I care?

What's the use in wasting time?
I wanna to make you mine today

It's high time
High time
High time
High time

When your lover has deserted you
When your friends have let you down
All is wasted time will torture you
And like a fool I'll come around

What's the sense in waiting, girl?
I'd like to make you mine today

It's high time
High time
High time
High time
