Windfall

The Icicle Works

On this day I find myself in rain and rags and bones
Sleepy eyed on the boardwalk watching wise men stumble home
Realise when in your field the new belle of the ball
Searching for the answer when the question says it all

Oh newfound confidence I'll challenge those who know
Slow dance Magnolia so go as you once bold
When will you find what you came here to find
You expected a feast got the weight of the world

Nestled and we tumble in the chaos that they breed
Chancing expedition were the objects of our dream
Realise when in our field the new belle of the ball
Searching for the answer when the question says it all

Oh newfound confidence I'll challenge those who know
Slow dance Magnolia so go as you once bold
When will you find what you came here to find
You expected a feast got the weight of the world
God is my witness I'm sleepless in sickness
A windfall will bring you the love you deserve
