

Behind words

The Idoru

Dont say this, i've already heard it !
you seem to have changed but it's a lie again.
your attempts will end in failure, like always.
please, don't make more empty promises!
there is a core / hiding behind the words / inside yourself / hiding behind the words / that directs your actions, gives you directions.
its carved into your heart, locked into your mind.
i dont believe all this works. but i can see that you hide behind the words, of course i will be faulty,
you can even make me feel guilty,
i won't let you prove your weakness again and again,
i am so disappointed in you, farewell !
