

Kill

The Idoru

cause you look for reasons that cover the answers. cause you try to avoid what is bound to happen. /do you know your weaknesses? have you ever stood up against them? have you ever faced your dread? have you ever conquered yourself?/ you may feed the lies and deepen the emptiness, or you might reckon with your self-esteem. don't ever back down in this fight, to think, to feel, to act right! can you bear the pain harder than ever? can you suffer much longer than ever? will you hold on when dreams shatter? kill your hopeless illusions (forever)
