

Hard To Believe

The Impressions

So very hard, to believe

I find it hard to believe, you're true
When the words between us, are so few
And though the two of us at home
I find ourselves alone
Never laughing like young people do

And I find it hard to believe, you're happy
Grin and bear it in your eyes, is all I see
Afraid I'm losing all my trust
Afraid somewhere there must,
Be someone more of a man than me,
And I find it, so very hard to believe

So very hard to believe now

Afraid I'm losing all my trust
Afraid somewhere there must,
Be someone more of a man than me,
And I find it so very hard to believe

So very hard to believe now
So very hard to believe
So very hard.....
