

Just Before Sunrise

The Impressions

This is a serenade
That should only, be played

Just before sunrise
When the moon is low
And your dreams are high
And love is near

When you are in the mood
To be tenderly wooed

Just before sunrise
Then the sun begins
A thousand violins
Sing sweet and clear

Hold me close oh my darling
In your arms it's so nice
Close your eyes oh my darling
You have to close your eyes
To see, paradise, just before sunrise!
Just before sunrise

Hold me close oh my darling
In your arms it's so nice
Close your eyes oh my darling
You have to close your eyes
To see, paradise, just before sunrise!
Just before sunrise
