

Only You

The Impressions

Early morning could hardly open my eyes
You find it sayin'
I can hardly lift my head, from the bed
I had a dream, I truly wish could come true
Nothing new to talk about, It was only you

Only you, I loved only you
There's nothing new, except our dream
You loved me too
In slumber sleep, I found my world
My mind was deep

Just the two of us found happiness
Beyond description, soulful dreams
And I repeat

It was early morning, when you came unto me
So real I could still feel, your kiss so tenderly
You truly loved me, in ways I can't express
And the ways I love you in return, It was nothing less

Wooh
A dream come true
Only you, I loved only you,
There's nothing new, except our dream
You loved me too,
In slumber sleep, I found my world
My mind was deep

Just the two of us found happiness
Beyond description, soulful dreams
And I repeat
Woo woo hoo hoo hoo

Wah ah ah
Only you, I loved only you,
There's nothing new, except our dream
You loved me too,
In slumber sleep, I found my world
My mind was deep

Just the two of us found happiness
Beyond description, soulful dreams
And I repeat

Woah oh oh
Only you, I loved only you,
There's nothing new, except our dream
You loved me too,
In slumber sleep, I found my world
