

You'll Want Me Back

The Impressions

You don't care for me at all
I found you only stay to make me feel so very small

Though you don't love me now I kinda feel some day some how

And it's gonna be too late
Darling, there you go again
Hurting me, in front of all our wonderful friends

Baby, I've been good to you
You better treat me like you used to do
And it's gonna be too late
And I'll see you run run run, run on, baby
And you're gonna cry cry cry, cry on, baby
But it's too late, bye bye
Ummm yeah

Too late
Too late
You'll want me back, you'll want me back
And I'll see you run run run, run on, baby
And you're gonna cry cry cry, cry on, baby
