

You've Come Home

The Impressions

You've come home
Home, you've come home

Darling you've come home, at last
I said a you've come home, at last
Now I feel no more pain
Things will all be the same

And I'm so happy you've come home, at last
And there will be no more, hurt feelings around us

A promise to you never again
Will I ever clown around us
Things will all be so sweet
You make our home complete

And I'm so happy you've come home, at last

Now I feel no more pain
Things will all be the same

And I'm so happy that you've come home, at last
You've come home
