The Infamous Stringdusters

There were storms in her eyes and blood on the tracks
She left some fool never lookin back
Her walk was steady headin my direction
I never knew a knife to the heart was a sign of affection

Her dark hair was 'owin like a smokey 're
She stared right through me that look of desire
She's gettin close now and I've lost control
It's burns me up but I'm still not letting go

You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.
You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.

Good lord I need some cool, cool water
For the heat comin out of the devils daughter
I took a bite of the apple and I lost my mind
My eyes can see but my heart is always blind

You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.
You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.

Well I get cut so deep can't understand
Why it can't happen to another man
A lesson learned is a lesson lost I'm broke again
I can't pay the cost of love

You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.
You can't put out the 're, you can't put out the 're
You can't buy love, or shake desire.
