

It'll Be Alright

The Infamous Stringdusters

You always thought that you would fly
Sail away and learn to ride
But you're waitin' for a changing tide
Take a train and catch a flight
Go ahead it'll be alright
No one that you owe it to
You'll do what you want to do
Stop the car and leave tonight
Go ahead it'll be alright
Still be here it'll be alright
Drive out past the city lights
Watch the day turn into night
You'll be feelin better by midnight
A winding road will make it right
Go ahead it'll be alright
What is past is done
No use hold'n on
Don't look back
That old house is gone
Round and rested on
Turn out that light
Don't look back it'll be alright
Take your chances when they come
Don't wait for something or someone
You hate to miss a chance at life
Go ahead it'll be alright
Take a chance (Just say yes-live version) It'll be alright
