

Light & Love

The Infamous Stringdusters

Are you sittin' there alone
No one there to call your own
Do you long to feel alive
You've got to look for love inside
Look for love inside

The wind is blowin' through your heart
Hey, it might blow you apart
Maybe it will set you free
Or maybe bring you to your knees
Woah

'Cause your light burns hotter than the sun
And your love is here for everyone
It can't be lost, it can't be found
It'll be here when your in the ground
When they lay you in the ground

You feel the walls are closin' in
You feel guilty for your sins
Just imagine how you'd feel
If you could drop the whole damn deal
Woah

'Cause your light burns hotter than the sun
And your love is here for everyone
It can't be lost, it can't be found
It'll be here when your in the ground
When they lay you in the ground

Your light burns hotter than the sun
And your love is here for everyone
And your light burns hotter than the sun
Your love is here for everyone
And your light burns hotter than the sun
Your love is here for everyone
