Taking A Chance On The Truth

The Infamous Stringdusters

I don't mind telling you what's on my mind
When I do give me the same look at you
I'm looking for you

I can't see why you're not trusting in me
Time stands still, unless you can tell me you will Please tell me you will

We've got to open our hearts
Isn't it time that we start
Taking a chance on the truth

I hope you know how I only want our love to grow
Hand in hand, giving it all that we can
Oh, let's do what we can

We've got to open our hearts
Isn't it time that we start
Taking a chance on the truth

Maybe we'll find what we need
But baby there's no guarantee
Tell me you'll let me inside
Show me there's nothing to hide
Taking a chance on the truth

We've got to open our hearts
Isn't it time that we start
Taking a chance on the truth
Girl, take a chance
