

Thunder

The Infamous Stringdusters

Can't buy sunshine, sun goes down
Light days, dark days, it's always around
Like the sound as the thunder hits the ground
Lightning striking, the flash in the sky
Here and there and low and high
And the sound as the thunder hits the ground, hits the ground

White mountains, big blue sea
Deep canyons, tall green trees
We're all yearning to be free
We can be free

See that bird soar through the air
Watch her flying anywhere
Ask yourself where you are bound
Are you lost or are you found?
Like the sound as the thunder hits the ground, hits the ground

White mountains, big blue sea
Deep canyons, tall green trees
We're all yearning to be free
We can be free

Yeah, white mountains, big blue sea
Deep canyons, tall green trees
We're all yearning to be free
We can be free
