Til I'm Satisfied

The Infamous Stringdusters

Down along the riverside
I looked across the water deep and wide
There I saw a fire burn
A line of flames no matter where you'd turn
Well, something told me I should wait
You cross right now, I'd meet my awful fate
If I stayed and heeded it's call
Well, either way I'd go, I'd risk it all

Go on, and face the fiery flames
Stay still, and gamble just the same
I won't stop, I won't turn back until I'm satisfied

Willow branches overhead
Above the rising current, full of dread
A chilly wind begins to moan
The chance to keep from choosing now has flown
The clock is running out of time
And everything I got is on the line
I keep a-searching for an easy trail
But everywhere I look, I'm doomed to fail

Go on, and face the fiery flames
Stay still, and gamble just the same
I won't stop, I won't turn back until I'm satisfied

Go on, and face the fiery flames
Stay still, and gamble just the same
I won't stop, I won't turn back until I'm satisfied
