

So Sorry

The Ink Spots

So sorry that love didn't quite agree
So sorry, too bad it just had to be
For a time it seemed we were doing so well
I had never dreamed that love would go into its shell

So sorry we had to make up and find
It's over, two hearts had one change of mind
Never, ever thought that I would have to say
"So sorry" someday

I'm so sorry honey, that our little love affair didn't quite agree
Darling, you can't imagine how sorry
Too bad, yes I know, but it just had to be
You know, I never ever thought that there'd come a time when I'd have to say

"So sorry," someday
