

Stop Pretending

The Ink Spots

Stop pretending, stop pretending
That you'd walk a mile
Just to see me smile

Stop pretending, stop pretending
That your future lies
In my dark brown eyes

It's the song that took your life with a smile
And a kept a knocking at your door
You turned wild but listen child
It's never gonna happen no more

Stop pretending, stop pretending
That you care for me
Cause I'm hep you see

Oh, stop pretending that you care for me
Stop pretending and let me be
Oh babe

Stop pretending you'd walk a mile
Stop pretending honey child
Oh babe, oh babe, oh babe yah yah

Song that took your life
With a smile and a kept a knocking at your door
You turn wild honey child
Never gonna happen no more

So stop pretending stop pretending
That you care for me
Cause I'm hep you see
