Good Things

The Interrupters

It's always darkest before the dawn
Weather's clearing up yeah
The storm has come and gone
Pick up the pieces, time to rebuild
Clean up the broken glass that spilled

Inner disaster, it's a new chapter
No longer shattered, or bruised and battered
If I'm the one to blame, it doesn't matter
Good things, good things, good things, yeah, yeah

I've been through hell today, I hit rock bottom
Something's gotta change
I've been through hell today, I hit rock bottom
Good things are bound to come my way
My way, my way, my way, my way

This world is ruined by selfishness and greed
Some get everything they want when most Can't afford what they need
I've had the days where I couldn't buy a meal
Living hand to mouth but I won't steal yeah, yeah
I couldn't count the ways, that I've been let down
That I have been betrayed, that I've been pushed around
I don't know who's to blame
It doesn't matter good things, good things, good things
Yeah, yeah

I've been through hell today, I hit rock bottom
Something's gotta change
I've been through hell today, I hit rock bottom
Good things are bound to come my way
My way, my way, my way, my way

Good things, good things, good things, good things, good things
Better come my way
Good things, good things, good things, good things, good things
Better come my way
