The Jacka

Project Groundation, the AR
We started from the ground up, you dig?
We turned niggas into superstars man, you feel me?
Real hood niggas that deserve it man, you know what I'm sayin?
We brought the world light man, you know what I'm sayin?
When y'all mothafuckas was stuck on the radio bullshit, couldn't find no real shit
Nigga we kept it 100 nigga, you dig?
So check this out nigga, this that new shit nigga
What happened to the world!

I wonder if they get what I'm tryna say
The world need a real nigga right away
My enemies think about me every day
The fans anticipate because they know our lives degrade
Imshallah can't protect you from the lies I face
Hold my ratchet, knock the plasma from inside your face
I tied dope dealers up and went inside their safes, but made sure that their children and their wives were safe
Catch him alarm, the women and kids inside the place
Bark when I'm home, and go to your room, your sanity break
You yell and you scream like this your worst dream, no way to be safe
The things that you did to my people the paper could never replace
You fucked up my life so I picked up my rifle and loaded it up
I went to a block where I thought my wife was and opened it up
The girl say the project smell like much ganja, they hoping we cut
You cut our community, now the buffoonery all that we got

Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream
Cause I'm a frontline soldier who outwaits the pain
Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream
This for the youth, but the truth just seems so far away

Shaheed I feel you but our people isn't feeling dat
And when they hear you, there's a veil placed before they face
And they'll flip they hearts upon the law, have we gone astray?
This strike 4 law, lord forgive me for the laws I break
I blow the steel and the clothes reeling in a green estate
So when the newsreel play, man, I'm far away
They fuck the haters in this state, I pray we shake the jakes
I gotta be here for my people, I don't need no case
Try to fool me, don't feed the movement? We moving you out the way
Wait till you flip it, take a percentage, we straight extort in yo face
Killing these kids for the sick riches and devilish bitches, ay
When we stitch your last lick words, my killas, you can't play cake
Selling your soul for that gold you can't hold on Judgement Day
Get rich in this world for the next, and it ain't no consolation
We on the frontline in the belly of this confirmation
We face the pain, attain the truth, but damn, you married and taken

Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream

Cause I'm a frontline soldier who outwaits the pain
Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream
This for the youth, but the truth just seems so far away

Yo, they took my vision when my vision was nonexistent
Once I developed vision, I ended up in prison with niggas
The term "niggas" was embraced from a lack of religion
The lack of faith took the place of the faith of our children
The face of millions was methodically submerged with illness
Bildenberg state of mind, pimp the virgin pilgrims
False hope, tossed the rope around the tree limbs
Horrific strange fruit hang from loops in deep southern winds
The seeds of truth all repeat: CTRL ALT DELETE
It's now part of the alphabets in the minds elites
The internet been placing thoughts in the minds of the week
Couldn't have with the Earth, but instead they in Hell with the meek

Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream
Cause I'm a frontline soldier who outwaits the pain
Dope game taking our love away
Cocaine taking our loves away
Maybe I should just contemplate this dream
This for the youth, but the truth just seems so far away
