

A Solid Bond In Your Heart

The Jam

Feel is a word I can't explain
At least not in words that are plain
Make it easy to express
But I'll try to do my best

To hit you where it counts
I just want to build up
A solid bond in your heart
A solid bond in your heart

I'm fuelled by the idea
That this world was made to share
But it never seems to work out

And all we seem to share
Is doubt and misery
Please let me try to build
A solid bond in your heart heart

I just want to build up
A solid bond in your heart, heart
It's what's missing from this life

And the trust you need to ignite
Any dream worth holding dear
When that dream is so near

You gotta try and try to get it back
Push it to the limit and build
A solid bond in your heart
