

All The Things

The Janoskians

She caught my eye at a quarter to three
A little pixie chick down the New York street
With a short black dress and newbie kicks
In the middle of the winter, minus 10 degrees
Oh my God, who is that?
I thought to myself, I thought to myself
But nothing in my brain will come out

Six months later bout 10:15
She was lying in the sand on the Cali beach
Rocking full fur and cowboy boots
In the middle of the summer 99 degrees
Oh my God, yeah who is that?
I thought to myself, I thought to myself
But nothing in my brain will come out, yeah yeah
I should of said this words all out loud

Now its clear in my head
All I hear is all the things I should've said
All the things that I should've said
You're beautiful
Heaven sent
Super cool
I really like you, is what I meant
All the things that I should've said, yeah

Na na na... all the things that I should've said, yeah

I should've said it, yep there I said it
Should've would've could've
Done it all but I didn't aye
Seeing all playing in my mind, keep it running on loop all the fucking time
Body tight, mhm.. just the way I like
Smoking hot yea, you could be my lucky strike
But nothing in my brain will come out, yeah yeah
I should've said these words all out loud

Now its clear in my head
All I hear is all the things I should've said
All the things that I should've said
You're beautiful
Heaven sent
Super cool
I really like you, is what I meant
All the things that I should've said, yeah

Na na na... all the things that I should've said, yeah
Na na na...

Now its clear in my head
All I hear is all the things I should've said
All the things that I should've said
You're beautiful
Heaven sent
Super cool
I really like you, is what I meant
All the things that I should've said, yeah

Na na na... all the things that I should've said, yeah
Na na na... all the things that I should've said, yeah
