

Touching Yourself

The Japanese House

I had to go into the other room
She sent me something, and I can't think about anything else
I guess it could wait till a later date
But now I'm picturing you, and you were touching yourself
Yourself

I had to go into the other room
She sent me something, and I can't think about anything else
I guess it could wait till a later date
But now I'm picturing you, and you were touching yourself
Yourself

Picture your face
I wanna touch you, but you're too far away
And when you call me, I'm all over the place now
You think it's different, but it's always the same
I wanna touch you, but...

I had to go into the other room
She told me something, and I had to go and sit by myself
Said she'd call me from a better place
If you think things will change
You are kidding yourself, yourself

Picture your face
I wanna touch you, but you're too far away
And when you call, me I'm all over the place now
You think it's different but it's always the same
I wanna touch you, but...

Know I shouldn't need it, but I want affection
Know I shouldn't want it, but I need attention
Know I shouldn't say it, but I had to mention
It makes me wanna die
Every time I have to

Picture your face
I wanna touch you, but you're too far away
And when you call me, I'm all over the place now
You think it's different, but it's always the same
I wanna touch you, but...

Know I shouldn't need it, but I want affection
Know I shouldn't want it, but I need attention
Know I shouldn't say it, but I had to mention
It makes me wanna die
Every time I have to
Yourself
You touching yourself
Yourself
