

You Always Get What You Want

The Japanese House

I remember the time you walked away, I remember the first light
I remember everything you say, I remember the gridlock

I know you screamed it out
This is too far
And does he do right by you?
You'll always get what you want

You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You always get

And you've left now, but it's better that I know you're gone
And I breathe out, dizzy from the last hour of holding on

And does he do right by you?
And does he work so hard?
I know you'll miss me but you'll call me back
You'll always get what you want

You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You'll always get what you want

You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You always get what you want
You'll always get what you want

You'll always get what you want
