

Ain't No End

The Jayhawks

Pick up the pieces and pack up your mind
You don't ask for what you have to find
Many people rolling out to sea
Let loose those floodgates
That have held you back so long
Ooh Lord, there ain't no end
Left him one thing
He tried to kill
Now there's a station not so far away
I listen in most every single night
Why does that valley
That can't cross
This soul's been misplaced
In a desert it was lost
Ooh Lord, there ain't no end
Left him one thing
He tried to kill
Ooh Lord, there ain't no end
Left him one thing
He tried to kill
Pick up the pieces and pack up your mind
You don't ask for what you have to find
Many people rolling out to sea
Let loose those floodgates
That have held you back so long
Ooh Lord, there ain't no end
Left him one thing
He tried to kill
Ooh Lord, there ain't no end
Left him one thing
He tried to kill