

Life Beyond The Sky

The Jeff Healey Band

I took a walk yesterday
And I'm sorry to say
The people were poor
In a world of war and doubt

There was no hope in sight
With the dark of the night
And while they dreamed
It seemed there was no way out

There's a time beyond us all
When you reach out to whomever falls
The worlds turn, and spirits fly
Rise together in a life beyond the sky

I was walkin' today
What a price people pay
Where the war is down
There's blood on the ground and hate

The environment of right
Is still under the night
And so on it goes
No one knows the children's fate

There's a time beyond us all
When you reach out to whomever falls
The worlds turn, and spirits fly
Rise together in a life beyond the sky
Yeah

I am walkin' tomorrow
Far away from the sorrow
I see all things
On the wings of the eternal dove

There's a time beyond us all
When you reach out to whomever falls
The worlds turn, and spirits fly
Rise together in a life beyond the sky
Yeah c'mon up with me baby
Come on up with me baby, hey
All right
