

Mesmerized

The Jets

You love me, yes, you say you do
With hungry eyes
You want me to belong to you
It's in your sighs
You ask me, "what's it gonna be now?"
You want no lies
You're eyes are tender as the apple to my Eden
You're lips taste so right and sweet
You ask me when I'll see you again
You've done the impossible

I'm mesmerized by your love
I'm hypnotized
This is the first time that love's tracked me down
And I've been in love in return

When siding, love is all at known
It's such a shame
Together feeling so alone
I know we're in game
But you have changed my life forever
I'm not the same
Two magic numbers and a perfect combination
Two sides of a coin are we
Can't turn you back, I'm too far gone
I might as now, you see

I'm mesmerized by your love
I'm hypnotized
And now these lovers have for the pair
Love's finally calling my bluff

When I'm dreaming, this one's for real, yeah
Since you're asking me, what do I feel

Mesmerized by your love
I'm hypnotized
And now these lovers have for the pair
Love's finally calling my bluff

You're eyes are tender as the apple to my Eden
You're lips taste so right and sweet
You ask me when I'll see you again
You've done the impossible

I'm mesmerized by your love
I'm hypnotized
This is the first time that love's tracked me down
And I've been in love in return

Mesmerized, yeah, by your love
I'm hypnotized
And now these lovers have for the pair
Love's finally calling my bluff

Mesmerized, ooh, by your love
I'm hypnotized

Girl you know, I love you
This is the first time that love's tracked me down
And I've been in love in return

Mesmerized, by your love
I'm hypnotized
