piece of me me when I flow flow flow flow I got em all over the map trying to listen to me rap, trying to figure out t he catch when I get down Trying to figure out the flow and how I get it so bold when I go to mix down such a big sound
But they're never gonna figure me out, cause I was given nut' but trouble, n

When I'm ripping and double dipping they duck and they cover shit is like a

And you already know know know know And you'll never find another one like me, never gonna get it shit is highly unlikely Too rare for you yeah, and I stay committing murder on the mic and I'm doing it nightly
Tryin to follow my trail they can't find, haters looking at me evergreen lik e a pine tree Can't let go of the fact they just wack and they want it so bad while I'm ri pping it rightly Spazz on the beat from the east to the west I forever give it to you with th

And I'm prolly the one that you never want to mess with, I'mma rip any beat up until I pop a vessel And I'm making em nervous the way I play with the wording and I got everybod y looking like a joke joke joke joke I bring it hotter than the heat of a lighter, kill every beat on the vinyl t hen I be turning it over And I ain't ever stopping it's only the beginning of flows that I be bringin g when I'm serving opponents There ain't nobody better when it's Zerk and The Jokerr, and I aim at their head and they need a tourniquet for it 'Cause I heard it before and these rappers sure to be boring I'm bout to pur ge and I'm going in for the throat throat throat throat And they know that the sound is amazing I'm bout to be moving the whole crowd when I play this Came here to get it I'm already way to head of 'em knowing they gon' be settling for the ground but I'm aiming

All the way up and I reach another level 'cause I've already went from the attic way down to the basement
Any other rappers that wanna be going at it then it's click automatic get down when I spray shit
And I don't ever sleep, I come home, and I get to killing whatever beat might come on Mind'll be racing until my body is shaking and going in like I just saw the street lights come on Yeah, let me see you hit play now, making the record just spin around in a motion
