

The Trail of Destruction

The Jokerr

It was never in me to be this way
I only wanted to love
But in a world of evil
War is invetiable
For there will always come times
When good men must do good things to bad people
To prevent them from doing bad things to good people
I learned early on
There is no turning of the cheek
When you are facing an enemy who wishes only to destroy you (HE RE WE GO, HERE WE GO)
You can't negotiate with evil, it is the fool who says "I will protect my family from my enemy with kind words" (HERE WE GO, H ERE WE GO)
You must strike hard and strike fast, affording no mercy to tho se who perpetrate evil upon the innocent
Welcome to the Trail of Destruction [laughing]
