

Absence

The Joy Formidable

Do I miss
What I can't get right
It brings me down, down for a long time
Then you leave in a sunny way
And I'm at the window, willing you to wave

You think you're caught
And I know it's sad
But the absence is all we had

Do I miss
The sentimental purrs
That keep me dreaming, about the world
Day and night, my soul they only graze
What are we feeling, we can't shake

You think you're caught
And I know it's sad
But the absence is all we had

Now I know what this means
I know what you mean to me
