

Farrago

The Joy Formidable

I've been weak in the doubting light
I'm a stray heart that's tied
You have a way and I have mine
I'm not farrago

Countless darlings they steal from me
Steal my humour and the girl away
I'll be left out, I'll make it mine
I'm not farrago

Come on and be happy look at this it could be worse
On a bed of biting ants you caught me laughing at the world
If not for you, you pushed me on
I'm not farrago

Come on and be happy look at this it could be worse
On a bed I didn't make you caught me laughing at the world
If not for you, you pushed me on
I'm not farrago
If not for you, everything's gone
I'm not farrago
I'm not farrago
I'm not farrago
