

Only Once

The Joy Formidable

I'm gliding in the dark
With the birds that are in danger
Are they following the stars?
Or fleeing from their beds?
I'm just gliding in the dark

I'm running through the grasses
Leave myself to meet again
See you both in everything
An ache I can't hide
You float above and then below
Stray from your body back to that road
See it over again, see it over again

There's nothing that I haven't said
Go back to sleep, more time to count
Feel it all, don't think ahead
Full of missing haunts you

We'll never come apart
You're something I can feel
Here we are
Only once till we disappear
Into each other
You're something I can feel
You're sleeping now
But it's endless how I feel

I'll face the moon, you face the sun
Be honest why you stayed
I'll chase moon, you face the tide
If Heaven walked away

There's nothing that I haven't said
Nothing that I haven't dreamed
Feel it all and die another death
Pass your body on to me

We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart
We'll never come apart

Love me cold
Bathe the forest creek
Beneath your feet
Don't let it end

Love me hot
Like those desert rocks
